

Friday, May 25, 2007

$1.2M racquet club completed

Charlotte Business Journal - by J. Lee Howard

Southside Constructors Inc. recently completed a $1.2 million, 10,500-square-foot racquetball club and fitness center for Charlotte-based Berhe Tennis Inc.

The two-story, masonry facility at 10607 Rea Road is called the Blakeney Racquet Club.

The ground floor houses two regulation-sized racquetball courts, a lounge with fireplace, a children's play area, pro shop, locker rooms, sauna and medical office. The second floor features a fitness center with free weights as well as cardiovascular and Nautilus equipment. The building also includes a multipurpose room that can be rented for parties and meetings.

Southside Constructors of Belmont was general contractor. Local architect John Hallenbeck designed the building.