

Business

OIL CLIMBS TO NEW TERRITORY AGAIN

NEW YORK (AP) — Oil prices raced above $145 a barrel for the first time Thursday as traders added to their bets on the commodity ahead of the long holiday weekend. There was little good news for Americans hitting the road for the July Fourth holiday, as gas prices set their own record near $4.10 a gallon.

8A

Friday, July 4, 2008

S&P 500 1,282.00	▲ +1.38	NASDAQ 2,345.38	▼ -6.08	DOW 11,288.54	▲ +73.03	6-MO T-BILLS -01	▼ -01	30-YR T-BONDS 4.53%	▲ +03	CRUDE OIL $145.29	▲ +1.72	EURO 1.5899	▼ -.0189	GOLD $891.90	▼ -12.90
---------------------	---------	--------------------	---------	------------------	----------	---------------------	-------	------------------------	-------	-----------------------	---------	----------------	----------	------------------	----------

HAPPENING HERE

Publication: The Gaston Gazette; Date:2008 Jul 04; Section:Business; Page Number: 8A

From staff reports

Southside Constructors, Inc. based in Belmont, recently completed a Ruth's Chris Steak House restaurant in Myrtle Beach, S.C. The 10,740-square-foot facility, one of the first Ruth's Chris Steak House restaurants in coastal South Carolina, features five dining areas, a patio with a bar for outdoor dining and state-of-the-art kitchen, The restaurant is in The Marina Village at Grande Dunes.

